Škola T. G. Masaryk

100 Years of a Community-Based Czech Language School

crowd at T. G. Masaryk School on the day of its opening celebration

Klára Moldová, T. G. Masaryk School Vice-President and teacher, will discuss how this century-old Bohemian-language school in Cicero, Illinois, remains committed to its educational, fraternal and social objectives. Klára will talk about the school's early development, current class operations and its ongoing relationship with the community it serves.
